

visions of india

by
MIKE KILLELEA

who took a kaleidoscopic ride through a land of frenzied traffic, noise, color and motion...and still managed to paint some of it.

Clockwise from top:
A camel driver and his charge; morning traffic in Agra dodges meandering cows and artists; a large mosque looms over traffic rushing by in Delhi; small markets and roaming cows mark roads and communities almost everywhere.

email: art@killeart.com

Clockwise from top:
Palace gate in Ranthambhore; an “Untouchable” woman and baby; loading sandalwood for cremations on the Ganges in Varanasi; a sidewalk fast-food grill.

